Commencement Speaker

Effie O. Johnson

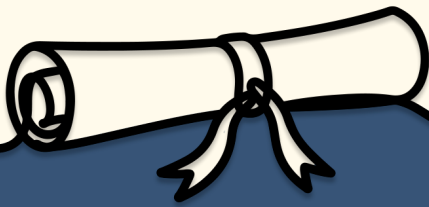

Mrs. Effie O. Johnson is the Head of the Digital Surveillance Program at S&P Global Ratings, where she leads a global team dedicated to strengthening the integrity and accuracy of financial ratings through compliance oversight.

A graduate of Harvard University, Mrs. Johnson began her career as a staffer for Congressman Jim Cooper of Tennessee. She later earned a Master of Public Administration from New York University, specializing in nonprofit management, and a Master of Education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Her professional background also includes independent consulting work with the United Nations and experience as a compliance analyst at TIAA.

Outside of her career, Mrs. Johnson is deeply committed to preserving the history and advancing the development of her family's homeland, Sierra Leone. The daughter of university educators, Mrs. Johnson remains enthusiastic about education, public service, and community engagement.

Mrs. Johnson is married and the proud mother of three sons, including her eldest son, Deji, who celebrated his kindergarten graduation today at Dickens Sanomi Academy.

“Your journey is just beginning.”

Thank You!

Dear Parents and Families,

On behalf of our school community, we extend our heartfelt thanks to you for your unwavering support, partnership, and dedication throughout this school year. Today's graduation is not only a celebration of our students' accomplishments, but also a reflection of the love, guidance, and encouragement they have received from you.

Your consistency has made a lasting difference. Whether through daily routines, words of encouragement, attendance at events, or quiet support behind the scenes, you have helped create the foundation our students needed to grow, learn, and succeed. Your commitment reminds them that they are supported every step of the way.

We are also deeply grateful for the collaboration between home and school. When families and educators work together, students thrive. This partnership helps students build confidence, develop responsibility, and understand the value of perseverance.

Most importantly, thank you for encouraging our students to become the best versions of themselves. You have inspired them to dream, to work hard, to lead with kindness, and to believe in their own potential.

As we celebrate this special milestone, we honor not only our graduates, but also the parents, guardians, and families who helped them reach this moment.

Thank you for trusting us, partnering with us, and sharing your children with us.

With sincere appreciation,
Dickens Sanomi Academy
